4. THE HERITAGE PLATTER AVAILABLE AT POST BAR IS A FULLERTON CONCOURS SPECIAL

The Heritage Platter tells the story of Singapore's food memory lane. The satay is an ode of the first Satay Club that was established in 1940 and withstood over 65 years to its latest iterations at neighbouring Esplanade and Clarke Quay. Many Singaporeans have fond memories of enjoying this national staple by the riverside.

The Crispy Chilli crabmeat bun celebrates the vibrancy of life at Singapore River in the past. Considered the lifeline of Singapore in the early days, a sea of activities once took place at the riverside. Bumboats and tongkangs plied the banks against a backdrop of merchants trading goods such as the spices so there was always a medley of fragrant aromas wafting through the river air.

Priced at S$48 for two persons, the platter includes:

- Grilled chicken satay with peanut sauce and condiments
- Housemade crispy radish spring roll with chilli dip
- Steamed heritage popiah
- Prawn kueh pie tee with chilli
- Crispy chilli crabmeat bun
