

JADE OFFERS A TASTE OF THE FUTURE WITH A PLANT-BASED VEGAN MENU

Classic Chinese dishes re-imagined with no meat, no eggs, no dairy

SINGAPORE, 11 April 2019 – Sustainability is a key tenet of The Fullerton Hotels & Resorts’s corporate philosophy. In this regard, Jade, one of its marquee restaurants, has launched “Taste the Future”, a special plant-based five-course menu (S$68++ per person) that is a next step to sustainable living. All the menu mainstays are pure vegan, made with no meat, eggs or dairy — in short, no animal product is used as an ingredient.

The carefully curated menu showcases the versatility of vegan dishes without compromising on flavour. Chinese Executive Chef Leong Chee Yeng drew inspiration from his own personal vegan-dining journey in the creation of the dishes. In place of meat, the menu features Omnipork, a nutritionally superior analogue prepared from a blend of plant-based protein from pea, non-GMO soy, shiitake mushroom and rice. To ensure a rich, nuanced tapestry of textures and flavours. Chef Leong pairs it with over 30 fruit, vegetables and other natural ingredients such as beancurd skin, soy milk and seaweed.

Start off with the Classic Vegetarian Combination, which features Vegan Meat Stuffed with Pickled Apple, Plum-flavoured Cherry Tomato with Sesame Dressing, and Steamed Vegetarian Dumpling.

The pickled apple is wrapped in the vegan meat, then coated with caramelised honey for an interesting contrast of textures and sweet and sour flavours. The cherry tomato is served chilled for a refreshing tang to wake up the tastebuds, while the steamed dumpling features Omnipork vegan meat and seaweed encased within delicate housemade dumpling skin.

Up next is the Old Cucumber Soup with Seaweed Vegan Meat Wonton, which has been simmered for three hours for a sweet, rich medley of flavours. The Pan-fried Fresh Chinese Yam, Vegan Meat Omelette Served with Stewed Beancurd is Chef Leong's nod to a well-loved classic. But instead of eggs, the "omelette" is prepared using beancurd skin and soy milk to ensure that it retains the same moreish, crispy edges as the real thing. For a richer mouthfeel, Chef Leong packs it with chunks of soft, fragrant yam and vegan meat.

Continue the indulgence with the Braised Vegan Meat with Capsicum, Assorted Mushrooms, Peach Gum and Eggplant in Sesame Soy Sauce Served with Steamed Fragrant Rice. Typical braised pork rice calls for pork fat. Chef Leong has replaced the animal fat with peach gum, which has nutritional benefits and incredible depth of flavour. The natural ingredient is also touted as the Asian secret to beautiful skin.

Cap off the gourmet experience with Hot Cream of Almond with Passionfruit Chia Seed Lava Glutinous Dumpling. The sticky glutinous dumpling's skin is made of flour, vegetable oil, water and sugar, and coloured jade with wheatgrass juice. Filled with passionfruit chia seed lava, the different layers of textures play upon one another: sticky chewiness with oozy goodness. Paired with smooth aromatic almond cream made fresh daily, it is a sweet toast to the taste of the future.
