SINK AN AL FRESCO DRINK AT THE CLIFFORD PIER'S GIN PARLOUR BY THE BAY

SINGAPORE, 4 July 2019 – Shoot the breeze and soak up the stunning waterfront views of Marina Bay with your favourite gin in hand. Accompanied by the Mediterranean sounds of the pianist in the evenings, the elegant space at The Clifford Pier's Gin Parlour By The Bay, The Fullerton Bay Hotel Singapore sets the stage for a romantic al fresco evening like no other.

From international brands to local distilleries, The Clifford Pier's Gin Parlour By The Bay lives up to its name by offering a top-shelf collection over 100 labels of gins from around the world. Sip it neat, drink it with tonic, or have it in a cocktail – possibilities are endless with the fashionable spirit. Serving up fantastic good ol' G&T and excellently crafted house cocktails, get ready to be schooled on the many faces of the juniper juice here.

Start the evening with a special gin and tonic shooter made with a unique twist. Think wobbly gin jelly that is light, sweet, yet assertively boozy. Once you have got some gin to taste, go for the real deal. Gin lovers will be pleasantly wowed by the G&T menu which consists of a wide variety of Botanical Gins. Six pages of gin, in fact, from countries as far afield as Sri Lanka, Colombia, Finland and Italy including a guilt-free non-alcohol gin. Blend your own G&T with a choice selection of artisanal premium tonic waters featuring unique flavours such as Elderflower, Grapefruit, Old World, Indian and Yuzu. The skilled bartenders will be sure to top them off tastefully with east and west spices that used to be traded on the Marina Bay waters. Served in an exquisite Cabernet wine glass, enjoy the bouquet of aromas from your chosen tipple like a professional.

G&Ts aside, the parlour also features a respectable line-up of cocktails categorised as The Clifford Pier Concoctions and The Fullerton Classic Cocktails. The former is a tribute to its location at the harbour. Enjoy the likes of Sea Nomads, a refreshing concoction of gin, fresh lime juice topped with pomegranate, cinnamon and anise, and the St John's Island, a blend of gin, pineapple juice, topped with bitters, galangal, cinnamon and raspberry. The latter features adapted cocktails which play cleverly on the classics, like the Kumquat Mojito which adds muddled kumquats for its bright citrusy flavours, and the quaffable Red Lantern of simple tequila with a refreshing medley of cucumber, lime and watermelon. Traditionalists will also enjoy the brilliant non-alcoholic All-time Hawker Favourites, from the iconic Kopi Peng and Teh Tarik to the fancy Chin Chow Moon Walker and Air Bandung.

The al fresco seating area along the pier's perimeters incorporates aquatic references, accentuating the restaurant's unique setting perched above the sea. It is the perfect vantage point for guests to enjoy the captivating Marina Bay Sands' Spectra Light Show. Watch the beautiful symphony of dancing fountain jets, colourful visual projections, advanced lasers, and lava and mist effects unfold right before your eyes from 8.00 p.m. onwards.

Occupying the space of the original Clifford Pier, The Clifford Pier at The Fullerton Bay Hotel Singapore preserves the pier's hawker culture while honouring its historical role as the landing point of Singapore's forefathers. On the menu are the best of Singapore's culinary delicacies represented by a melting pot of diverse cultures including Western classics. ABOUT THE CLIFFORD PIER

Unveiled in May 2014, The Clifford Pier is The Fullerton Bay Hotel's destination restaurant. A historic landmark, Clifford Pier was built in 1933 as the landing jetty for ships and marks the arrival point where Singapore's forefathers began a new chapter of their lives. An air of adventure and discovery surrounds the Pier which is closely representative of the Singapore story. In the Pier's earliest days, hawkers plied its waters on sampans offering comfort food to warm the stomachs of Singapore's pioneers who journeyed from afar. From the 1950s, the car park adjacent to the Pier was transformed into a hawker centre at night. Our dining destination preserves the Pier's intrinsic hawker culture and honours its historical role as a melting pot of diverse cultures by presenting the best of Singapore's delicacies and reinterpretations of Asian specialties and Western classics.
